

JONO KYRIAKOU

DOP

BIO:

Jono is a hands-on cinematographer, bringing solid experience and positivity to any set or project. Striving to bring simplicity and a relaxed environment to every set. Jono's flexible and versatile nature is complemented by a wide range of work across various genres and platforms. Half Greek, half English, Jono thrives in diverse cinematic landscapes and has worked and traveled extensively throughout the continent.

Skateboarding and the culture that surrounds it has always been a big part of Jono life, it was the the spark that inspired him to get into photography. After completing a BSC in project management. A stint as a photojournalist, he found himself in the the South African film industry - working his way up the ranks. He sampled most departments but ended up the longest in the art department working with some of the biggest names in the industry - and learning to really appreciate every detail in front of the lens. This variety of experience have all come together to form a creative, yet technical, cinematographer.

Some career highlights include 2 Amazon originals, a slew of brand films and commercials including Nike, Spotify, Lexus, VW, McDonald's, SAB and Virgin Active

When he's not behind the camera, Jono is usually out somewhere trying to ride some kind of board, lately more in the ocean than on land.
