

JARED PAISLEY

DOP

BIO:

Jared is a cinematographer with a strong background in editing and post production whose work is rooted in authenticity and empathy.

After completing a BA in Screen Production at the University of Cape Town, he undertook an internship at a production company headed by Director Adriaan Louw. It was this move that kicked off a steep learning curve and love for all things documentary.

Working with Adriaan, and DOP Deon Van Zyl, he honed a cinematic eye and learnt how to shape natural light. Later, working under Dean Leslie (Wandering Fever) and Greg Fell (Fell+Company) my work would take me outdoors and to very remote locations, again affecting my working style where all gear taken is essential with no room for excess. Since then, Jared has progressed to larger sets and projects, all the while enjoying and maintaining certain projects that are small in nature. All of these projects have their merits.

Both of these skill sets, using natural light and minimal gear, have been carried throughout his work. Allowing for an environment that allows the story to flourish, and characters to feel safe and comfortable.

Above all, he seeks to create a heightened reality in the work he collaborates on.

He is eager to learn and grow existing skill sets, as well as fields completely new to him.

Jared is passionate, hard-working, empathetic, adaptable, curious, adventurous, considered.
