Bio:

Winston Moeketsi is a hardworking and dedicated Digital Imaging Technician with 9 years of experience in camera operation and data management. His journey began in camera work, providing a strong foundation that he has leveraged to excel in digital imaging. Over the years, Winston has honed his expertise in various tasks, including backing up footage, ensuring camera settings match given specifications, performing QC and color corrections, fixing camera technical issues, syncing sound, and transcoding proxies. Additionally, he is proficient in organizing bins for edit assistants in AVID and Premiere Pro.

Winston's extensive experience spans a wide array of projects, from feature films and TV series to commercials and documentaries. Notable projects he has contributed to include high-profile productions for Netflix, such as "Spear," "Meet the Khumalos," "How to Ruin Valentines: Be My Valentine," "Miseducation (Misfits)," "How to Ruin Christmas: Season 3," and "Kandasamys: The Baby."

As a Post-Production Lab Operator, Winston has been responsible for transcoding daily footage, creating and uploading dailies, performing quality control, and backing up data on LTO tapes. Projects in this role include "Justice Served," "Silverton Siege," "The Brave Ones," and "How to Ruin Christmas: Season 1." His work ensures seamless transitions from production to post-production, maintaining the highest standards of quality throughout the process.

Winston thrives in fast-paced environments and is constantly seeking to improve his skills and knowledge. His goal is to ensure the highest quality in every project he undertakes, bringing meticulous attention to detail and a commitment to excellence. With extensive experience in data wrangling, post-production lab operations, and daily management, Winston Moeketsi is well-equipped to handle the demands of any production setting.
